The Consecration and Ordination of a Bishop

The ministry of the Church is the ministry of Christ, its chief shepherd and high priest. Those who are ordained are called to share Christ's work, to speak in his name and build up the Church of which Christ is the head.

This service of ordination perpetuates a pattern of ministry in direct continuity – through a long line of succession – with the apostles. Just as Jesus commissioned his first disciples, so by the laying on of hands the President will commission this disciple to mission. That is, to witness to the resurrection and to preach the good news of salvation in all the world. The particular role of a bishop – while remaining a deacon and priest – is to proclaim and guard the faith, to preside at the sacraments, to lead the Church's prayer and to hand on its ministry.

During the service the candidate will be asked to confirm his commitment to these priorities. The President will ask all who are present to undertake to support the ordination of this candidate, not least because as bishop he will act not just on behalf of particular local Christian communities, but of the whole Church. This is followed by the invocation of the Holy Spirit and the laying on of hands. Gavin will be anointed with sacred oil, signifying his role of leadership within the royal priesthood of Christ's people; he will receive a copy of the Holy Scriptures, both to remind him of his duty to proclaim the Gospel and of the centrality of God's Word; and he will receive a pastoral staff, symbolising his sharing in the ministry of Christ the Good Shepherd.

In accordance with ancient tradition, three bishops are required for the consecration of a new bishop. As a sign that this ministry is shared, at this service the Bishop of London will be the chief consecrating Bishop and will preside at the Eucharist. The Archbishop, as Metropolitan, still presides over the whole service, visibly sharing this ministry with other bishops, receiving the oath of canonical obedience from the new Bishop; and giving the newly consecrated bishop his pastoral staff. This sharing of ministry illustrates and embodies our shared apostolic vocation and demonstrates the unity of the Church we serve.

We are all turned outwards towards the world that God loved so much that he sent his only Son. We are prepared for that goal and end of all things, when Christ himself will present to the Father a world made perfect by his work—when all God's people share in the joyful communion of love that binds the Father and the Son, in the unity of the Holy Spirit.

The Venerable Gavin Andrew Collins MA

Gavin was educated in Law at Trinity Hall, Cambridge, and worked as a solicitor in the City of London, before training for ministry at Trinity College Bristol. He served his title at St Barnabas, Cambridge, in the diocese of Ely and was ordained Priest in 1998.

In 2002, Gavin was appointed Vicar at Christ Church, Chorleywood, in the diocese of St Albans and, from 2006, he additionally served as Rural Dean of Rickmansworth.

In 2011, Gavin took up his current role as Archdeacon of The Meon in the diocese of Portsmouth.

Gavin is married to Christina, who is a Health Visitor, and they have three young adult children.

Veni Creator Spiritus

Traditionally, this hymn is sung during the consecration service prior to the ordination prayer; as we are not able to follow this tradition today, we encourage you to use these words in your own private devotions before and during the service:

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire, and lighten with celestial fire;
thou the anointing Spirit art,
who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart.

Thy blessed unction from above is comfort, life and fire of love;
enable with perpetual light
the dullness of our blinded sight.

Anoint and cheer our soiled face with the abundance of thy grace;
keep far our foes, give peace at home;
where thou art guide no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son,
and thee, of both, to be but one;
that through the ages all along this may be our endless song:

Praise to thy eternal merit,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

Private cameras and video recorders may not be used before or during the service.

The congregation is asked to ensure that all mobile telephones are switched off.

Communion is administered in one kind only. If you normally receive communion in your own church, you are welcome to receive communion here. If you do not wish to take communion but would like to receive a blessing, please come forward bringing your service booklet with you to let the minister know.

Gluten-free communion wafers are available. If you require a gluten-free communion wafer, when the time comes to receive communion, please ask the minister for a gluten-free wafer.

The Gathering and Presentation

The Greeting

Please stand

The Archbishop greets the people

All Blessed be God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
Blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

All There is one body and one spirit.
There is one hope to which we were called;

All One Lord, one faith, one baptism,
one God and Father of all.

All Peace be with you
and also with you.

The Archbishop introduces the service

God calls his people to follow Christ, and forms us into a royal priesthood, a holy nation, to declare the wonderful deeds of him who has called us out of darkness into his marvellous light.

The Church is the Body of Christ, the people of God and the dwelling-place of the Holy Spirit. In baptism the whole Church is summoned to witness to God's love and to work for the coming of his kingdom.

To serve this royal priesthood, God has given particular ministries. Bishops are ordained to be shepherds of Christ's flock and guardians of the faith of the apostles, proclaiming the gospel of God's kingdom and leading his people in mission. Obedient to the call of Christ and in the power of the Holy Spirit, they are to gather God's people and celebrate with them the sacraments of the new covenant. Thus formed into a single communion of faith and love, the Church in each place and time is united with the Church in every place and time.

Please remain standing.

Prayer of Penitence

Deacon We run the race set before us, surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses. Therefore let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which clings so closely, bringing them to Jesus in penitence and faith.

All Father eternal, giver of light and grace,
we have sinned against you
and against our neighbour,
in what we have thought,
in what we have said and done,
through ignorance, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We have wounded your love
and marred your image in us.
We are sorry and ashamed,
and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
who died for us,
forgive us all that is past;
and lead us out from darkness
to walk as children of light.
Amen.

President May almighty God have mercy on you,
forgive you your sins,
and bring you to everlasting life,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Please be seated.

The Presentation

The Bishop of Portsmouth and the Bishop of Oxford say

Archbishop Justin, Gavin has been chosen to be Bishop of Dorchester.

We present him to be ordained and consecrated to the office of bishop in the Church of God.

The Archbishop asks

Do you believe him to be of godly life and sound learning?

Those presenting respond

We do.

The Archbishop asks

Do you believe him to be duly called to serve God in this ministry?

Those presenting respond

We do.

The Archbishop turns to the ordinand and says

Do you believe that God is calling you to this ministry?

The ordinand responds

I do so believe.

The Archbishop says

Let the authority for the ordination be read.

The Royal Mandate is read.

The Declaration of Assent

The Archbishop reads the Preface to the Declaration of Assent

The Church of England is part of the One, Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church worshipping the one true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It professes the faith uniquely revealed in the Holy Scriptures and set forth in the Catholic Creeds, which faith the Church is called upon to proclaim afresh in each generation. Led by the Holy Spirit, it has borne witness to Christian truth in its historic formularies, the Thirty-Nine Articles of Religion, the Book of Common Prayer, and the Ordering of Bishops, Priests and Deacons. In the Declaration you are about to make, will you affirm your loyalty to this inheritance of faith as your inspiration and guidance under God, in bringing the grace and truth of Christ to this generation and making Him known to those in your care?

The ordinand responds

I, Gavin Andrew Collins, do so affirm, and accordingly declare my belief in the faith which is revealed in the Holy Scriptures and set forth in the catholic creeds and to which the historic formularies of the Church of England bear witness; and in public prayer and administration of the sacraments, I will use only the forms of service which are authorized or allowed by Canon.

The Oath to the Queen

Taking a New Testament, Gavin turns to the people and says:

I, Gavin Andrew Collins, swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law: so help me God.

The Oath of Canonical Obedience

Holding the New Testament, Gavin turns to the Archbishop and says

I, Gavin Andrew Collins, Clerk in Holy Orders, do swear by Almighty God that I will pay true and canonical obedience to the Archbishop of Canterbury and his successors in all things lawful and honest: so help me God.

The Archbishop says

Let us stand to pray for Gavin and for the ministry of the whole people of God.

Please stand. Silence is kept.

God our Father, Lord of all the world, through your Son you have called us into the fellowship of your universal Church:
hear our prayer for your faithful people
that in their vocation and ministry
each may be an instrument of your love, and give to your servant Gavin to be ordained
the needful gifts of grace;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Please remain standing.

The Collect

The Archbishop introduces a short period of silent prayer with the words:

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God,
by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified:
hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people,
that in their vocation and ministry
they may serve you in holiness and truth
to the glory of your name;

through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Archbishop makes his way to his stall.

The Liturgy of the Word

Please be seated.

First Reading (Colossians 1:15-29)

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

And you who were once estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his fleshly body through death, so as to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him— provided that you continue securely established and steadfast in the faith, without shifting from the hope promised by the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven. I, Paul, became a servant of this gospel.

I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church. I became its servant according to God's commission that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, the mystery that has been hidden throughout the ages and generations but has now been revealed to his saints. To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. It is he whom we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ. For this I toil and struggle with all the energy that he powerfully inspires within me.

This is the word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Remain standing for the Gospel.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

I do not call you servants but friends,
because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father.

All Alleluia.

John 15.15

Gospel Reading (Mark 1: 29-39)

All The Lord be with you
and also with you.

All Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
Glory to you, O Lord.

As soon as they left the synagogue, they entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once. He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them.

That evening, at sunset, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door. And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him.

In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. And Simon and his companions hunted for him. When they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is searching for you." He answered, "Let us go on to the neighbouring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do." And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

All This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

Please be seated for the sermon.

Sermon

The Most Reverend and Right Honourable Justin Welby, Archbishop of Canterbury

After the sermon silence is kept. All stand when the President stands.

The Creed

All We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Commissioning of the Consecrating Bishop

The Bishop of London comes before the Archbishop and stands before him.

The Archbishop prays and commissions Bishop Sarah to carry out the consecration.

There is one Lord, one faith, one baptism,
One God, Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all.
We are all made one in Christ, and baptized through one Holy Spirit.
Through this unity our ministry is shared.

Let us pray for Bishop Sarah who, on behalf of the whole church, will ordain Gavin as bishop today.

Silence is kept.

Gracious God, the fountain of all wisdom,
We pray for Bishop Sarah, and for all who teach and guard the faith.
May the word of Christ dwell richly in our hearts that we may retain the bond of peace and charity and be made fit for the most holy mysteries of God.
In the name of Jesus Christ.

All Amen.

The Liturgy of Ordination

The Declarations

The ordinand stands before the Bishop of London, who addresses the congregation:

Bishops are called to serve and care for the flock of Christ. Mindful of the Good Shepherd, who laid down his life for his sheep, they are to love and pray for those committed to their charge, knowing their people and being known by them. As principal ministers of word and sacrament, stewards of the mysteries of God, they are to preside at the Lord's table and to lead the offering of prayer and praise. They are to feed God's pilgrim people, and so build up the Body of Christ.

They are to baptize and confirm, nurturing God's people in the life of the Spirit and leading them in the way of holiness. They are to discern and foster the gifts of the Spirit in all who follow Christ, commissioning them to minister in his name. They are to preside over the ordination of deacons and priests, and join together in the ordination of bishops.

As chief pastors, it is their duty to share with their fellow presbyters the oversight of the Church, speaking in the name of God and expounding the gospel of salvation. With the Shepherd's love, they are to be merciful, but with firmness; to minister discipline, but with compassion. They are to have a special care for the poor, the outcast and those who are in need. They are to seek out those who are lost and lead them home with rejoicing, declaring the absolution and forgiveness of sins to those who turn to Christ.

Following the example of the prophets and the teaching of the apostles, they are to proclaim the gospel boldly, confront injustice and work for righteousness and peace in all the world.

The Bishop of London addresses the ordinand directly:

Gavin, we trust that you have weighed and pondered all this, and that you are now fully determined to devote yourself to this ministry to which God has called you. We pray that you may offer to him your best powers of mind and spirit, so that as you follow the rule and teaching of our Lord you may grow up into his likeness, and sanctify the lives of all with whom you have to do.

And now, in order that we may know your mind and purpose, you must make the declarations we put to you.

Do you accept the Holy Scriptures as revealing all things necessary for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ?

Ordinand I do so accept them.

President Will you be diligent in prayer, in reading Holy Scripture, and in all studies that will deepen your faith and fit you to bear witness to the truth of the gospel?

Ordinand By the help of God, I will.

President Will you lead your people in proclaiming the glorious gospel of Christ, so that the good news of salvation may be heard in every place?

Ordinand By the help of God, I will.

President Will you teach the doctrine of Christ as the Church of England has received it, will you refute error, and will you hand on entire the faith that is entrusted to you?

Ordinand By the help of God, I will.

President Will you be faithful in ordaining and commissioning ministers of the gospel?

Ordinand By the help of God, I will.

President Will you promote peace and reconciliation in the Church and in the world; and will you strive for the visible unity of Christ's Church?

Ordinand By the help of God, I will.

President Will you be gentle and merciful for Christ's sake to those who are in need, and speak for those who have no other to speak for them?

Ordinand By the help of God, I will.

President Will you endeavour to fashion your own life and that of your household according to the way of Christ and make your home a place of hospitality and welcome?

Ordinand By the help of God, I will.

President Will you work with your fellow servants in the gospel for the sake of the kingdom of God?

Ordinand By the help of God, I will.

President Will you accept the discipline of this Church, exercising authority with justice, courtesy and love, and always holding before you the example of Christ?

Ordinand By the help of God, I will.

President Will you then, in the strength of the Holy Spirit, continually stir up the gift of God that is in you, that the good news of Christ may be proclaimed in all the world?

Ordinand By the help of God, I will.

The ordinand turns to face the congregation.

The President says

Brothers and sisters, you have heard how great is the charge that Gavin is ready to undertake, and you have heard his declarations.

Is it now your will that he should be ordained?

All It is.

Will you continually pray for him?

All We will.

Will you uphold and encourage Gavin in his ministry?

All We will.

The ordinand turns to face the Bishop of London, who continues

Gavin, remember always with thanksgiving that God has entrusted to your care Christ's beloved bride, his own flock, bought by the shedding of his blood on the cross.

You are to govern Christ's people in truth, lead them out to proclaim the good news of the kingdom, and prepare them to stand before him when at last he comes in glory.

You cannot bear the weight of this calling in your own strength, but only by the grace and power of God. Pray therefore that you may be conformed more and more to the image of God's Son, so that through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit your life and ministry may be made holy and acceptable to God.

Pray earnestly for the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The ordinand and the congregation kneel. Silence is kept.

The Litany

In the power of the Spirit, and in union with Christ,
let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, have mercy.

For the peace of the whole world, for the welfare of the Holy Church of God, and for the unity of that they may serve him in truth and love,

let us pray to the Lord.

that they may hunger for truth and thirst after righteousness,
let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, have mercy.

For Gavin, called to be bishop in the Church, let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, have mercy.

For the mission of the Church, that in faithful witness we may proclaim the gospel of reconciliation to the ends of the earth,
let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, have mercy.

For the unity of the Church,
that there may be one flock and one Shepherd,
let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, have mercy.

For those who are lost and for those who have strayed,
that they may return to the way of Christ,
let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, have mercy.

For the sick and suffering, for the aged and infirm,
for the lonely and neglected,
and for all who remember and care for them,
let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, have mercy.

For the poor and the hungry, for the homeless and the oppressed,
for all prisoners and captives,
and for our brothers and sisters who are persecuted for their faith,
let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, have mercy.

For Elizabeth our Queen,
for the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority,
let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, have mercy.

For ourselves,
for grace to repent and amend our lives,
that we may be pardoned and absolved from all our sins,
let us pray to the Lord.

All Lord, have mercy.

Remembering all who have gone before us in faith,
and in communion with all the saints,
we commit ourselves, one another,
and our whole life to Christ, our God.

All To you O Lord.

The Ordination Prayer

Please be seated.

The ordinand continues to kneel before the Bishop of London, who stands to pray

We praise and glorify you, almighty Father, because in your infinite love
you have formed throughout the world
a holy people for your own possession,
a royal priesthood, a universal Church.

We praise and glorify you
because you sent your only Son Jesus Christ,
the image of your eternal and invisible glory,
the firstborn of all creation and head of the Church.

We praise and glorify you
that by his death he has overcome death;
and that, having ascended into heaven,
he poured out your Holy Spirit upon his disciples, to give them power to preach the gospel to the ends of the earth and to build up your people in love.

And now we give you thanks
that you have called this your servant,
whom we ordain in your name,
to share as a bishop in the ministry of the gospel of Christ,
the Apostle and High Priest of our faith and the Shepherd of our souls.

Therefore, Father, through Christ our Lord we pray:

Here the Bishop of London lays her hands on the head of the ordinand, and says

Send down the Holy Spirit on your servant Gavin for the office and work of a bishop in your Church.

The Bishop of London continues

Through your Spirit, heavenly Father, fill this your servant with the grace and power which you gave to your apostles, that as a true shepherd he may feed and govern your flock,
and lead them in proclaiming
the gospel of your salvation in the world.

Make him steadfast as a guardian of the faith and sacraments,
wise as a teacher,
and faithful in presiding at the worship of your people.

Through him, with his fellow servants in Christ,
increase your Church and renew its ministry, uniting its members in a holy fellowship of truth and love.

Give him humility, that he may use his authority to heal, not to hurt; to build up, not to destroy.
Defend him from all evil,
that he may, as a faithful steward,
be presented blameless with all your household
and, at the last, enter your eternal joy, through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with you and your Holy Spirit,
belong glory and honour,
worship and praise, now and for ever.

All

Amen.

The Giving of the Bible

The newly ordained Bishop stands and the Bishop of London gives him a Bible, saying:

Receive this book,
as a sign of the authority given you this day
to build up Christ's Church in truth.

Here are words of eternal life.
Take them for your guide and declare them to the world.

The Anointing

The newly ordained Bishop kneels and the Bishop of London anoints his head, saying

Gavin, I anoint you with this oil of gladness.
May the Lord keep you in the joy, simplicity and compassion of his Gospel.

May God, who anointed the Christ with the Holy Spirit at his baptism,
anoint and empower you to bring good news to the poor,
to proclaim release to the captives,
to set free those who are oppressed
and to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

All Amen.

Please stand.

The Welcome

The newly ordained Bishop faces the people, and the Bishop of London, Dean of the Province of Canterbury, says

Gavin, guard the truth that has been entrusted to you by the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

All We welcome you as a shepherd of Christ's flock.
Build up the Church in unity and love,
that the world may believe.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

Please stand. The Bishop of London prepares the table.

The Peace

The Bishop of London says

We are fellow-citizens with the saints and of the household of God through Christ our Lord, who came and preached peace to those who were far off and those who were near.

Ephesians 2. 19,17

All The peace of the Lord be always with you
and also with you.

The Eucharistic Prayer

All The Lord be with you
and also with you.

All Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

All Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

It is truly right and just,
our duty and our salvation,
always and everywhere to give you thanks,
Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Christ is the Good Shepherd of the whole flock,
for which the Holy Spirit ordains bishops to govern the Church bought by the blood of the eternal covenant.
In this joyful community of faith,
your people, filled with the gifts of the Spirit,
assemble together in one communion of love.
Here the gospel is set forth and fulfilled in the Supper of the Lord to make your Church a sign of love and unity for all.

Therefore with angels and archangels,
and with all the company of heaven,
we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and saying

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Lord, you are holy indeed, the source of all holiness;
grant that by the power of your Holy Spirit,
and according to your holy will,
these gifts of bread and wine
may be to us the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ;
who, in the same night that he was betrayed,
took bread and gave you thanks;
he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take, eat;
this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

In the same way, after supper
he took the cup and gave you thanks;
he gave it to them, saying:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many
for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it,
in remembrance of me.

Deacon
All

Great is the mystery of faith.
Christ has died:
Christ is risen:
Christ will come again.

And so, Father, calling to mind his death on the cross, his perfect sacrifice made once for the sins of the whole world;
rejoicing in his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension,
and looking for his coming in glory,
we celebrate this memorial of our redemption.
As we offer you this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving,
we bring before you this bread and this cup and we thank you for counting us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you.

Send the Holy Spirit on your people and gather into one in your kingdom
all who share this one bread and one cup, so that we, in the company of Swithun and all the saints,
may praise and glorify you for ever,
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
by whom, and with whom,
and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

all honour and glory be yours,
almighty Father, for ever and ever.
All Amen.

Silence is kept.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
All Though we are many, we are one body,
because we all share in one bread.

Giving of Communion

Draw near with faith.
Receive the body of our Lord Jesus Christ
which he gave for you,
and his blood which he shed for you.
Eat and drink in remembrance that he died for you,
and feed on him in your hearts
by faith with thanksgiving.

Communicant members of all Christian Churches are invited to receive Communion. Please follow the directions given. Gluten-free wafers are available. If you wish to receive a blessing instead, please hold this order of service with both hands, as an indication.

Please stand.

Prayer after Communion

President Let us pray.

Lord God, the source of truth and love,
keep us faithful to the apostles' teaching and fellowship,
united in prayer and the breaking of bread,
and one in joy and simplicity of heart,
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

All We thank you, gracious Father,
for welcoming your children to feast in your kingdom;
by your love unite us and with your Spirit send us,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

The Archbishop comes to the altar.

The Sending Out

The Blessing

The Archbishop says

All Our help is in the name of the Lord, who has made heaven and earth.

All Blessed be the name of the Lord,
now and for ever. Amen.
