

Books to chat about

Our 'Chatting Faith' project inspires families to talk about faith using secular books. Details: www.portsmouth.anglican.org/chatting

1 GIRAFFES CAN'T DANCE
by Giles Andreae
This bestseller has been delighting children for 20 years. An uplifting story of a giraffe with dreams

2 WISP
by Zana Fraillon
Examines what it's like to be a refugee and what it means to flee your home and everything you know.

3 THE KOALA WHO COULD
by Rachel Bright
A funny, rhyming story about dealing with change and anxiety

4 DON'T LET THE PIGEON DRIVE THE BUS
by Mo Willems
A book that demands interaction with children - and with an important message about when to say 'no'

5 IN OUR HANDS
by Lucy Farfoot
A timeless fable design to inspire children to come together and build a better future

6 I AM NEFERTITI
by Annemarie Anang
A heartwarming, joyous, empowering story of identity and belonging

7 VARMINTS
by Helen Ward
An evocative text that tells a mysterious tale of a threatened natural world, and a hopeful new start

8 THE PROMISE
by Nicola Davies
A story that suggests we need to renew our relationship with nature, and offers hope about our ability to transform our world

9 LOOK UP! by Nathan Bryan
A book to inspire children and adults to look up from their screens and take in the amazing world around them

10 VOICES IN THE PARK
by Anthony Browne
Four different voices give four different perspectives on a simple walk, which helps children see alternative points of view

Some of the 'Chatting Faith' branded resources we've supplied to churches and schools