

Good reading material

Parish magazines can be a great way to tell people about the great events and activities in your church. Here's some of the best:

1 The Parish Chronicle, DENMEAD

This glossy, colourful magazine combines news from all three churches and from community groups in the village, all presented in an attractive way. Its colour front covers are always engaging.

2 Bedhampton Parish, BEDHAMPTON

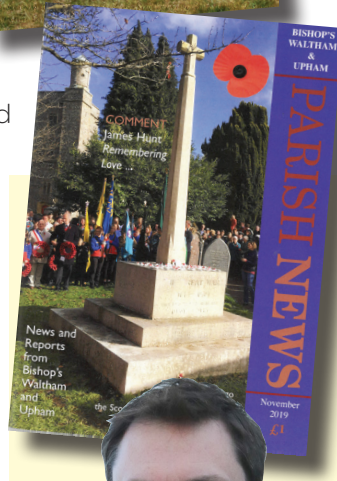

Printed on luxuriously thick card and paper, this A5-sized magazine includes colour photos, showcasing this church's exciting activities.

3 Shanklin Chimes, ST BLASIUS, SHANKLIN

A recently-revamped magazine, now with a colour front cover and lively pages inside. The name is a conglomeration of Pompey Chimes and Shanklin Chine.

5 Titchfield News, TITCHFIELD

This village publication is always a thoughtful collation of interesting articles from church and community contributors. A must-read if you want to know what's on in St Peter's and in Titchfield.

4 Carisbrooke Parish News, CARISBROOKE

This glossy A4 publication won a diocesan award several years ago because it was distributed free of charge to all 3,600 households in the parish. It continues to spread the word effectively about St Mary's Church in the neighbourhood.

6 Parish News, BISHOP'S WALTHAM AND UPHAM

A really well-produced magazine that has combined church and community news for many years. It now reproduces several pages of colour photos of local events.

7 Bembridge Parish News, BEMBRIDGE

A lively A5 magazine that has benefitted from the recent inclusion of colour photos regularly.

8 The Bridge, BRIDGE BENEFICE

This A4 magazine comes out every two months, with comprehensive coverage of Droxford, Meonstoke, Exton and Corhampton. It always features a bridge on its front cover

9 The Hambledonian, HAMBLEDON

It's a proper village magazine, with a real emphasis on people, and includes every snippet of village news you could ever want to know. It's really well designed too, by professional graphic designer Matt Lockwood (pictured)

10 Liss Parish Magazine, LISS

A recently-revamped magazine that proves photos can also be engaging in black and white. It also interviews individual churchgoers about their faith.
