

Dandelions

- When you look at a garden full of dandelions, do you see a garden full of weeds, or a garden full of wishes?
- When was the last time you blew a dandelion seed head and watched the seeds scatter as you made a wish?
- What would you wish for today?
- Is there one simple thing you could do to bring that wish closer to fulfilment?
- Remember that every achievement started life as a simple wish or dream!

“Organic as the dandelion seed, the ship of our imagination will carry us to worlds of dreams and worlds of facts.”

Carl Sagan
