

Mosaics

- We are all different! Think about the things that make you unique – physically, mentally, your life experiences.... Is this something you celebrate?
- Mosaics work best when each tile is different – together they make something beautiful.
- Sometimes the most beautiful mosaics are made out of broken pieces.
- How do you think this applies to your life and the communities you are part of?
- How could you bring more colour and diversity into your life?

