

INSPIRING MUSIC in WORSHIP

MUSIC for MISSION and MINISTRY

A training course for leaders of worship and musicians

To Deepen your knowledge and understanding

To Inspire your worship in fresh ways

To Introduce you to new resources

To Equip you for the future

Three-day courses in 2020
High Leigh, Hertfordshire 4–6 February
Ty Croeso, Cwmbran, South Wales 28–30 April
Whalley Abbey, Lancashire 29 Sept–1 October
One-day 'light' courses also available

Book now at rscm.org.uk

'I've never really understood how to put together a service and music. I can now marry the two!'

MUSIC
for MISSION
and MINISTRY

'The course immerses you in what you are studying.'

'A great span across different worship styles'

'I have come away feeling more equipped for my future ministry, regardless of what tradition it is in.'

Led by the Revd Helen Bent, the RSCM's Head of Ministerial Training, Music for Mission and Ministry is a training course designed to help you make informed choices for music in worship, to help with practical management and best practice in delivery. No musical expertise is required.

Topics covered include:

- The role of music in Christian worship
- Developing your musical repertoire for mission
- Positioning music in a service
- Building a team of musicians
- Choosing hymns, psalms and spiritual songs effectively

Formerly known as Strengthen for Service