

Generosity Week 2025

Save the Date

This year's Generosity Week is from Sunday 28 September until Sunday 5 October. As in previous years, churches join together at this time to explore God's generosity using a variety of resources, depending on their context.

But this year, there will be a new focus on teaching and learning about generosity at any time of year. For some that may coincide with Lent or Advent while for others it could be around back to school or Harvest time.

What's coming up? New for 2025

- A core version of Generosity Week as well as a more involved version
- Learning from all the work that is being done by different organisations around generosity and giving
- Highlights from the Anglican Giving Survey 2025
- Tips and lessons learned from a variety of churches that have run successful campaigns
- Help with preaching on generosity

Want to get started now?

If you want to do something now, why not complete the Generous Church Check-up. This simple tool focuses on celebrating successes and identifying areas of improvement and is designed to create a plan for the coming year, without placing too much of a burden on the leadership of the church. If you do a check up now, you'll know where to focus your efforts later.

Resources are being updated and created as you read this. If you received this email direct from us to your inbox, you're already on our mailing list. If you were given it by a friend and would like your own copy in future, you can sign up here.
